Energy of a Warframe is a resource used mainly to cast abilities. Warframes have 4 abilities that at base, cost up to 100 energy to cast. Almost every Warframe has their own energy-pool with varying capacities depending on the types and costs of their various abilities, with the exceptions of Hildryn, who has no energy but uses shields, and Lavos, having no ...

Wisp is an extremely good frame whether you replace her fourth or not. One of the things that makes her so good is that you can replace her for us with just about anything and she'll still be a really good frame.

Fused Reservoir is a Warframe Augment Mod/Exilus Mod for Wisp that allows her to spawn a fourth Reservoir with all three buffs at an increased energy cost. This mod can be acquired by attaining the rank of Genius under Cephalon Suda, or the rank of Flawless under New Loka, and spending 25,000 Standing 25,000 to purchase. Energy cost is not affected by mods. Fused ...

Wisp is one of the few outliers that doesn't need any EHP mods. You can simply rely on her motes to stay alive. With rage or Hunter adrenaline you can also generate infinite energy, so you can, if you want, use blind rage.

Notes. If Wisp wields her signature Fulmin, the weapon's Alternate Fire mode-switching animation is reduced from 1 second to 0.5 seconds.; Trivia. This is very useful for a variety of reasons. First, she can use it on her way to and from the objectives. Second, it has no energy drain and can consistently remain active. Third, because it is a passive, the ability is not disrupted by nullifiers. This is one example of the the little changes that makes Wisp so fun to use.

You can get well over 500% with Wisp alone nowadays. I hit that amount with just this build.. I also used Power Drain, which is also pretty easy to conditionally stack with Energy Conversion, Empower, and Growing Power, but requires the initial set up, so it is only going to be useful during endless type missions tbh.I believe if you manage to also get Pax Bolt + Umbral 3 set and all ...

press the ability button to cycle between the motes and holding it down spawns the one you have chosen. you need at least 25 energy to spawn one of them if you have 100% efficiency on your build. this ability has an augment "Fused Reservoir", that adds a fourth reservoir that applies all the three other motes effects at once.
